TESTIMONIALS

"I highly endorse her company and services as an emotional health and wellness expert. In my role as President, Pitney Bowes Management Services, U.S. Operations, I had the privilege to employ her company to provide training for a recently initiated program. She presented a training session entitled "Emotionally Healthy Leaders" that was so well received Pitney Bowes will be including her program in our company wide training.

As a leader in a Fortune 500 company, I recognize the value of having healthy employees, both physically and emotionally, to drive productivity. I am pleased to recommend Dr. Gladney for your company/ organization to help you reach your goals."

Keith R. Wyche
President

"Thank you for presenting your wonderful keynote address Move, Shake, Or Step Aside. I must say, our conference was made a huge success by your opening remarks that got everyone in the mood for a full day of learning. I appreciate all your efforts to provide a timely, well-rehearsed and information-packed session. The audience gave you extremely high marks on your evaluations. Having speakers in our programs such as you allows us to meet this goal. We thank you for sharing your knowledge and tremendous speaking abilities with our audience and would welcome your participation in future Clemson conferences."

Laurie Haughey
Assistant Director

"Dr. Gladney served as the mistress of ceremonies for the conference, which drew more than 400 women across the Airport. The conference was a huge success due in large part to Dr. Gladney's performance and her ability to connect with the audience.

Dr. Gladney was humorous, warm and engaging, kept the program running smoothly, and was able to weave her experience as an author, consultant and mother of four children into her presentation. Dr. Gladney created an environment that allowed the women of DFW Airport to feel special, important and appreciated."

Cristina Zertuche Wong
Assistant Vice President

"Dr. Gladney is one speaker you can't afford to miss. It will change your life forever! After attending her seminar in Orlando, I was left wanting more. I also left a changed person. I was able to remove a weight that I had been carrying for sometime off my shoulders. I had a toxic person in my life that just can't be removed but when I applied the techniques I learned in that hour and 45 session I was able to confront this person and without unleashing the toxin. Thank you Dr. Gladney for giving my children, my husband, and my co-workers back the real me!

If you are a meeting planner reading this I was impressed not only with her techniques but also with her delivery she kept a room full of meeting planners, and hotel sales personal engaged for more than an hour and could have kept us there another hour or two. How often do we really sit still for that long? So my advice to you is BOOK her and book her now! Thank you Dr. Gladney and I look forward to your next book!"
