TOM McTIERNAN THE "LAFF" OF THE PARTY

Tom McTiernan is one of eight children, and grew up in the suburbs of New York City. Being a product of such a multi-cultural and media driven area of the country, leads to many unanswered questions. The quest to find those answers has only led to more questions. Tom travels the country sharing his experiences while performing stand-up comedy in many of the nations top clubs. Tom can also be seen in theatres or Las Vegas opening for such stars as Tom Jones and Engelbert. Tom has also been quickly becoming a favorite on the corporate circuit, bringing a fresh perspective and smart wit. Still living in New York, Tom can be seen regularly at the city's best comedy clubs. Following a recent show, comedic actors Anne Meara and Jerry Stiller made a special trip backstage to let Tom know how much they enjoyed seeing his performance that evening. Tom has also caught the eye of critics, an article in New York's Newsday calls Tom "one of the sharpest comics in New York." "He is very funny, intelligent and good natured." "Someone you'll be hearing a lot about."
