CHRIS TOLEDO

My name is Chris Toledo, a keynote speaker that helps organizations improve company culture, through dynamic and engaging presentations on the power of Positosis™, learning how to turn any situation into a positive, to move forward with more focus and a higher level of performance, whether in the workplace or in daily relationships.

Chris' trademarked Positosis™ can be crafted to smaller events, or large scale companies with many employees. Positosis is based on training (or retraining) the brain to shift into a positive mindset through the tools and processes that Chris will share. He guides the audience through techniques, to transform life's experiences, into personal and professional success, and to move forward with momentum, confidence, and enthusiasm.

A former professional basketball player, and television host, Chris is no stranger to the spotlight, and sharing his message. With a host of experiences ranging from "The Reebok City Jam Show", in association with ESPN, Universal Studios Orlando, Reebok International, to working with Club Med International - Chris Toledo will entertain and delight your audience, while giving them the essential Positosis skills they need for increased job satisfaction, improved performance, and for leading happier, more productive lives, personally and professionally.

In Chris's keynote, "The Positosis Mindset", he teaches the audience the tips and tools to tap into their Positosis Mindset, on command.

Chris Toledo's presentations have his signature style, cadence, his unique brand of storytelling, with a natural ebb and flow. His presentations are informative, engaging, and interactive.

Chris brings over twenty-five years of experience as a world-class emcee, event host and public speaker. Chris has a range of professional experiences, as a top-tier international host/emcee for worldwide events that include private events, red carpet events, corporate functions, conferences, fundraisers and awards shows. Chris' professional history as an emcee have been refined on stages and venues from Paris, Los Angeles, Rome, Bogota, NYC, Atlanta, South Beach, Chicago, Moorea, Tahiti, Eleuthera, and Bahamas to name a few. Chris has also served as Reebok International's Global Spokesperson. He is a television host/personality, author, motivational speaker and professional athlete.

CHRIS TOLEDO'S KEYNOTE

'The Positosis Mindset'

The positosis mindset is designed to anchor yourself to positive thought, positive action through a step by step process of simple discipline of focusing on the positive, first, and transforming any situation into a positive in order to help you move forward at a higher level of performance and efficiency - whether in the workplace or in daily relationships.

With a strategy to develop, maintain a relentless positive mindset, my trademarked Positosis™ can be customized for smaller groups, or companies with many employees. Positosis is based on training the brain to shift into a positive mindset through the tools and processes I will share.

I guide the audience through techniques on how to turn their life experiences, the good, the bad, and otherwise, into the positive energy, usable fuel needed to move forward, with confidence, and enthusiasm while building momentum.

Chris Toledo will entertain your audience, and share personal and professional experiences while giving the essential Positosis skills needed to enhance job satisfaction, improve performance and build unshakable confidence to unleash creativity.

Studies show that optimism is a major impetus for personal and professional success. This relies, in part, on our ability to see stress as a challenge instead of a threat. When the brain is in a stressed state, it is difficult to tap into creativity, physical and mental energy, or productivity. The good news is, when the brain is in a positive state, it is 31% more productive!

In his keynote, "The Positosis Mindset," Chris teaches the audience the tips and tools to train the brain to see the positive, and tap into the Positosis mindset on command!.

With a wealth of unique experiences on a global scale, Chris offers first-hand experience with stories of practical applications on the power of simply being positive, and resetting the trajectory for a life of joy, confidence, and patience.

Presentations have his signature style, cadence, a rhythm and flow, with his own unique brand of storytelling. Chris Toledo's presentations are informative, engaging, and interactive.

If your company could use a boost this year, improved employee happiness, increased sales and productivity, and better overall company culture, book Chris Toledo today, and get your double dose of Positosis!
